Come to AppleFest this Saturday 10:00 to 2:00

Two Programs at Historical Center at 7:00 PM – all invited

Friday, October 15th – “The Moody Family of North Nobleboro since 1700s” with Thomas Moody

Tom, a Nobleboro genealogist, will spin the stories of the many Moody families who settled Nobleboro, farmed, worked, and lived here for hundreds of years. Tom tells a great story and will bring photos of the past. Bring your Moody stories too!

Saturday, November 13th – “Trains thru Nobleboro from the Beginning to the Maine Eastern Railroad with Wayne Anderson

Wayne, conductor on Maine Eastern Railroad and Nobleboro resident, will highlight the history of the railroad in this area. The conductor is the person in charge of the whole train, and with his extensive work experience in many aspects of the railroad, Wayne will provide an excellent understanding of the local railroads – and offer comments on the future of local Maine railroads.

Vote for Historical Society Officers at November 13th Meeting
