

Nobleboro Historical Society Programs
2002 - 2003

Saturday, October 19

7:30 P.M.

“Local Antiques”

A dialogue with the Editor of the Maine Antique Digest. He will discuss the value of preserving local antiques. While he is not an appraiser, he will answer questions about local artifacts.

Presented by Samuel Pennington

Hostesses: Alice Scott and Flora Gray

Saturday, November 9

7:30 P.M.

“Where we were and what we were doing when the big bomb was dropped on Japan”

A program featuring local World War II vets and their memories.

Presented by Arthur Jones, Richard Perkins, Barbara Pinkham, Anson Perley and Earl Baldwin

Hostesses: Melissa Coleman and Jean Vose

Saturday, April 12, 2003

6:00 P.M.

25th Anniversary Celebration
at Camp Kieve, West Neck Road

This will be a gala banquet. We will be remembering how we got started; the success of the Hard Times Cookbook and Applefest; and the many accomplishments of 25 years.

Saturday, May 10

7:30 P.M.

ANNUAL MEETING

“Bobbins and What to do with Them”

Presented by Dirk Poole, Ma’s Bobbin Works, Nobleboro

Hostesses: Jean Thurston and Eleanor O’Donnell

Friday, June 6

7:30 P.M.

“A Driving-Walking Map of Nobleboro”

A discussion of how the Nobleboro Conservation Commission developed this historic and environmental map of the town.

Presented by the Nobleboro Conservation Commission: Sharon Abair, Alan Railsback, Bill Hill, Ralph Knowles and Jean Vose

Hostesses: Ada Duncan and Hilda Berry

2002 - 2003 Program Committee
Jean Vose, Chair	Thomas Moody
Sonia Clime	Alice Scott
George Dow	Richard Vose